Note from the 300th Anniversary Committee

Checklist for the 300th Anniversary

All correspondence goes in the 300th Anniversary mailbox outside the copier room.

Needed - veteran information, recipes for the Cookbook, story updates for Shirley Girvin, suggestions for choirs for 2027, and volunteers: writing Minutes for History, helping with public relations, taking a turn sharing our video with community organizations, offering to share your story through an interview, directing a play, helping with a Veterans' Day service in 2026, supporting efforts by the Green Tree Thimble Club and other initiatives that are yet to be known.

Individual and business sponsorship forms for this year's Scottish Festival are available on the table in the Welcome Center.

MOPW's sub/pretzel sandwiches will be delivered on Thursday at 2:00 p.m. at Shirley Miller's home.

VBS - Let's go on a ROAD TRIP

Vacation Bible School week will be June 16-20, 6-8:30 PM. There will be classes for children, preschool age through Grade 5. Friday night we also have a meal for the entire family. Also, we are happy to once again hold a class for those who are disabled and have special needs (all ages). Pre-registration available on the church website. Please see the bulletin board for everyone who has their background check current and are able to help.
